Beercott Books to publish children's book debut of newcomer Marvin Sexton

Beercott books is pleased to announce the signing of new author Marvin Sexton, to publish his debut children's book Man's First Words.

Man's First Words is a charming tale of how a boy, in a world without words, discovers the power of speech. After sharing this wonder with his family, he leaves his cave to spread the news across the world. Written in rhyme, it is a heart-warming tale for younger readers.

Marvin Sexton is a Portsmouth based writer who relishes the opportunity to put pen to paper and create imaginative worlds to share with his children. Together they enjoy getting lost in the magic of literature and begin to make links between the stories and real life

Simon Lucas, owner of Beercott Books says: "We are delighted to welcome Marvin aboard and to be able to bring his debut children's book to readers. As soon as we read the text, we were struck by how the simple words brought such a powerful and heart-warming tale to life."

Man's First Words is scheduled to be published early 2021 in paperback.

Beercott Books is an independent publisher based in Warwickshire. They specialise in publishing work by new authors across a range of genres.
